2nd by Steve Demos

FYI: There is no hunting at Clemson on Sundays.

New business:

There is a ride scheduled at Watson Mill State Park on November 21st. Ride out at 10 a.m. and Cathie Gaffney is the contact.

Watson Mill State Park has the orange trail open now. Cathie Gaffney stated that it is nice and approximately 3 miles long.

Deep Creek in Bryson City, North Carolina is a nice place to ride per Kim Bright.

The next meeting for the Obstacle Course has been scheduled and Ken Smith has gotten $200 from Farm Credit for the show.

Kim will check on the snail mail before the next meeting.

Billy Allen is doing wonderful following his surgery. Keep feeling better Billy and bless you and Vickie both.

Vicky Toporek and Tina Pusbach has paid for the animal rescue class out of their personal funds. The class is scheduled for October 27 and 28.

It was brought up that the club should have a flag to carry during parades and set up during events. Ken Smith offered to build the aluminum frame for the flag/banner and Vicky Toporek nominated Tina Pusbach for the silk screened fabric for the frame.

This was 1st and 2nd by Vicky Toporek
